DEMOCRATIC

CONVENTION

The Democratic Territorial Convention has been called to meet in Honolulu, Monday September 24.

Primaries will be held ten days earlier. The convention will be composed of one delegate for each ten votes cast for Curtis P. Iaukea the party's nominee for congress two years ago.

The calling of county conventions will be left to the county committees but will probably be held the same day, and the primaries for the election of the delegates to the two conventions will probably be held together.

CLAY COMPANY

CASE IS PAU

ROBINSON DISMISSES PETITION AND NO APPEAL IS TO BE TAKEN.

Judge Robinson this morning gave a decision in the Honolulu Clay Company case, dismissing the bill filed by C. R. Hemenway, and thus probably ending the case. It is understood that no appeal will be taken.

The suit was in equity to compel stockholders of the late clay company to pay balances due on their share of stock subscribed for, with a view to collecting about $15,000 debts alleged to be owed by the corporation. The Clay company was once a big brick-making concern in Nuuanu valley, but local demand for its product lessened, and after a short term of seeming prosperity, the company was laid as permanently as any of its own bricks. In deciding the case this morning, Judge Robinson simply held that the petitioners were not entitled to the relief prayed for in their bill, hence it would be dismissed with costs to the respondents.

COURT ASKS FOR ASSISTANCE

J. J. DUNNE APPOINTED TO AID IN SETTLING THE KUNIAKEA ESTATE.

J. J. Dunne was appointed by Judge Robinson this morning amicus curiae in the matter of the Kuniakea estate. The judge said that the evidence was so unsatisfactory that it would not support any decision of any kind, and he wanted further assistance. He thought there should be further testimony and further cross-examination of some of the witnesses.

The estate amounts to about eight thousand dollars and is being contested for by many alleged heirs. The Territory is watching the proceeding and will probably put in a claim that none of the claimants are legal heirs, demanding that the estate escheat to the Territory. In the meantime Dunne will go over the evidence and report the case with a view to assisting the court.

EASY MONEY MAKING WHISKY

KUNST'S LETTER OFFERING TO SELL SECRET RECIPE FOR 33 CAUSES TROUBLE.

The following letter is what landed E. Kunst in jail this afternoon as a federal prisoner, causing him to be held by Commissioner Davis under $750 bonds, the hearing being set for next Saturday morning at ten:

"My Dear Sir—I am happy to say that you have been recommended to me by a friend as a person that is ambitious to better his circumstances, and believing such to be the case, I make you a proposition that cannot fail to make you more money than you could earn at anything else.

"I have a secret recipe whereby any man can make whisky at a cost of 30 cents per gallon. The whisky is of a quality that otherwise you could not buy for less than $4 per gallon. Now it requires not much imagination to see what you could make out of a proposition of this kind. You could easily make at least a hundred dollars per month, out of this with an ordinary amount of energy and my friend told me that you had plenty of that. Now you will ask as to where I come in. Just this way: In the first place I would have to ask you that—if you and I can agree—you will have to promise not to transmit this secret to any one else. 'THIS IS NECESSARY,' for if everybody knew you would not be able to make much out of it—nor would I. Now then, if you will remit to me the sum of $3 I will thereupon mail you the recipe with full instructions of how to make the whisky and, if thereafter you should require any further directions, I promise to give you same upon receipt of a self-addressed stamped envelope.

"My friend assured me that he did not overestimate your ability and push, and therefore I look forward to hear from you by return mail.

"Do not fail to give your exact address in your letter and make the Money Order payable to E. Kunst, 713 Emily street, Honolulu.

"Hoping you will not fail to avail yourself of this opportunity, I am, yours for success,
"E. KUNST,
713 Emily St., Honolulu."

WILL BE A ROW

There is a big row in prospect tomorrow night at the Republican headquarters over a protest from the Ninth Precinct of the Fourth District over the nominations made last Friday night. This is the precinct where the Coster and Quinn tickets are fighting, and the Quinn men have made the protest. They claim that the Coster slate ticket was never filed in writing, as required by the party rules and is therefore not in nomination at all. The Coster men beat the Quinn ticket badly in the primary a few weeks ago, and they are going to make a big howl before they allow their opponents to be elected without opposition on a technicality.

RUTHET ARRIVES

The bark R. P. Ruthet, Captain McPhail, arrived this morning from San Francisco. She had a pleasant voyage down with light winds the entire distance. The trip was uneventful. The Ruthet went to the Bishop wharf where she is discharging lumber and empty bottles. She brought the following passengers, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight-Durant a bridal couple and Mrs. Vichy who is the mother of Gaston Boisse foreman of the Advertiser's press room.

Bettis as assistants to Mrs. Mary Bettis in the boarding department.

HEARST WARS ON PARTY TICKET

CHICAGO, August 10.—Republican success at the November election in Chicago was assured today when the Hearst papers open a savage war upon the Democratic ticket nominated yesterday. The Hearst organs allude to the candidates as creatures owned by National Committeeman Roger C. Sullivan and 'born in the infamy of gas and tunnel politics.'

The Hearst-Dunne-Carey combination received an awful jolt in the primaries and then Mayor Dunne, fearful of his political future, broke with Hearst. In yesterday's convention Carey was deposed as county chairman and Hearst, the only one left of the combine declared war upon the victors. The Democrats will send a deputation to New York to ask Hearst to call off his local agents, but not much success is looked for. It is thought the fight is on to a finish, all of which augurs well for the Republicans.

S W Taxite

A great mixture, did you ever try it? Not very good to drink, but for the purpose of getting off old paint and varnish it is the real thing. It does not injure the hands, or the wood, you are removing paint or varnish from, and is far better and easier than burning off. After you are through with Taxite you will want to cover the bare wood with some good PAINT, VARNISH or STAIN, and we presume you know that SHERWIN-WILLIAMS make the best goods in these lines and that they are carried in stock, and sold by
